EDUCAUSE

UNCOMMON THINKING
FOR THE COMMON GOOD

“We can no longer afford to create unique solutions at each institution for common problems. EDUCAUSE is the community for meaningful collaboration.”

— Mark Askren, Vice President for Information Technology and Chief Information Officer at the University of Nebraska

Technology is everywhere on campus, creating a unique set of challenges and opportunities.

EDUCAUSE can help you enhance the impact of IT.

Who We Are

- EDUCAUSE is a higher education technology association and the largest community of IT leaders and professionals committed to advancing higher education.
- EDUCAUSE supports those who lead, manage, deploy, and use information technology, helping them to anticipate and adapt to change, and advancing strategic IT decision making at every level within higher education.
- We bring together technology professionals and leaders across campus and the industry to solve today’s challenges.
- EDUCAUSE is committed to “uncommon thinking for the common good.” Being part of EDUCAUSE means being part of a community of institutions that accomplish more together than they ever could on their own.

Our Members

With a thriving community of more than 100,000 individuals at member organizations in 45 countries, EDUCAUSE advances diversity in perspective, opinion, and representation. Together, EDUCAUSE member institutions serve over 16 million students.

How We Can Help You

We are ever evolving and developing support systems, tools, resources, and communities to help you understand and solve the issues you face on campus.

Stay Informed on Issues, Technologies, and Trends in Higher Education

Predict, plan, and act on the latest trends by using our cutting-edge research, toolkits, and publications. Leverage the expertise shared in our content to keep ahead of the curve on your campus.

Advance Your Knowledge and Career

Your staff can turn to EDUCAUSE for all of their professional learning needs. From mentorships to volunteer opportunities that help you shape the profession, to learning opportunities designed for every level and interest area, EDUCAUSE will help your staff grow.

NEW EDUCAUSE Ambassador Program

Help your organization get the most out of your membership by designating an ambassador. EDUCAUSE staff support ambassadors by helping them learn about our programs and services so they can connect colleagues across your campus with the tools, research, and discounts beneficial to their roles.

Make Informed Decisions

Inform your strategic planning with IT staffing, financing, and organizational data. Our benchmarking tool provides insight into your peers' technology deployment and the maturity of your own digital capabilities. EDUCAUSE analytics services help you communicate the different ways IT provides value to your institution.

Get Special Pricing for Our Services

As a member you'll enjoy discounted pricing on all of our events, professional learning offerings, job postings, sponsorships, exhibits, and advertising.

Build a Collaborative Network of Peers

Discuss your challenges and share best practices with your peers at our events, or work with other members to solve your most pressing issues and develop innovative solutions through our numerous virtual communities.
